The two-year wage increases for the 35,000 coal miners of Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas and Oklahoma, agreed upon by a sub-committee of the conference of miners and operators, has been accepted by the full conference and will become operative August 1st.

It takes a rousing demonstration to get a small boy out of bed in the early morn.

The spoon is an insignificant little utensil, yet it creates a stir in every home.

News Matters Briefly Told.

Sometime ago Great Britain issued a blacklist against hundreds of American firms and forbade English traders from dealing with them. It was on the ground that they were assisting in supplying Germany with goods. President Wilson has sent a note of protest to England.

Two hundred lives are reported to have been lost from forest fires raging in Ontario, Canada.

Thomas Edgar Stripling has been pardoned by the Governor of Georgia after having served a short part of a sentence he was under for murder. The circumstances are very peculiar. Stripling escaped before his sentence began and remained out of Georgia for fourteen years. He was a good citizen, reared a family and became chief of police of Danville, Va., serving with honor and distinction. Here he was recognized by a man from Georgia, who divulged his whereabouts, and he was arrested and taken back to Georgia while wearing his uniform as chief of police of Danville.

The heat wave which has enveloped a part of the country killed nearly two hundred in Chicago Sunday. The thermometer rose there to 102.

The Charlotte Observer has raised a purse of $500 for the two negroes, Fon Ross and Peter Stowe, who saved six white men on the Catawba. Their bravery has been reported to the Carnegie Hero Fund and they will probably receive medals and other rewards from that source.

Both the Seaboard and Southern roads have finished temporary bridges across the Catawba and trains are now operated across. At Mt. Holly, however, the Seaboard bridge has not yet been put up.

Maj. George F. Rutzler of Charlotte and Savannah, died Saturday. Maj. Rutzler was a citizen held in high esteem in both cities. He was the father of Mr. George F. Rutzler, Jr., who is well known in Monroe.

New Hope News.

Quite a number of boys have left this community for Baden where they will work.

Miss Rebecca Belk is attending the summer school at Prospect.

A protracted meeting begins at New Hope next Sunday, and we hope it will be a great success.

Mr. Verne Long and family visited the homes of Mr. J. R. Belk and Mr. Roscoe Long Sunday.

Mr. S. D. Hough is visiting at the home of Mr. W. C. Belk.—Last Rose of Summer.
